New Resident Welcome Bags

The Moore County Chamber of Commerce is the distribution center for new residents to obtain their telephone directories for Embarq and the Pilot. New residents to Moore County are provided this Welcome Bag when they come into the Chamber to get their phone books. The mission of this project is to greet new residents as they relocate, to acquaint them with Moore County and to market the products and services of local businesses. When registering for this program it totals 500 bags at which point the program will begin again.
